

CommUNITY Arts STL Seeks Sponsor for Collective Motion's 20th anniversary production

by Christine Murray

St. Louis, MO — October 6, 2025 — CommUNITY Arts STL is seeking a $1000+ sponsorship from a local business to become a key part of their upcoming 20th anniversary production set forth on May 1, 2026 titled This Moment That Makes Us. Base sponsorship gets a XXX” tall animal bust (see image below) larger custom sponsorships available. Only a single business partner will be able to take advantage of this opportunity as the artist will produce a single custom sculpture in collaboration with the business. The sponsorship will benefit CommUNITY Arts STL, the local business and artist. Collective Motion productions collaborate with local artists to present dynamic, multidisciplinary experiences that enrich the St. Louis arts community.

“Our upcoming spring production, This Moment That Makes Us, will feature live dance, painting, music, and poetry. We are deeply grateful to Justin King for partnering with us to spotlight a local business. This is more than sponsorship; it is a chance to have your support immortalized through art,” said Paige Walden Executive Director and co-founder.

The piece will be made using recycled cardboard (your company's branded packaging) to make a one-of-a-kind lasting piece of art. Business will collaborate with the artist to create a one-of-a-kind art piece. The sculpture will be featured as a focal point of the production’s reception before it is permanently placed in the sponsoring business office.

The upcoming production on May 1 promises to be a lively theatrical performance. In This Moment that Makes Us, we awaken to the beauty of now. Through movement, sound, and heart, we gather the fragments of time, memory, and imagination. Turning them into something alive. Something artful. Something shared.

For more information or to secure sponsorship, please contact:

Community Arts STL
5617 Pershing Ave
Saint Louis, MO 63112
(314) 200-5758
www.communityartsstl.org
info@communityartsstl.org

---

About Community Arts STL

At CommUNITY Arts STL, we believe every young person, regardless of financial status, deserves access to enriching arts education. Our mission is to cultivate community at the intersection of art and public health to inspire intentional and creative living. We foster environments where artistic expression is not just celebrated but used as a powerful tool for personal and communal well-being. Through movement, visual arts, performance, and community engagement, we address the physical, mental, and social health of Saint Louis residents. At our core, we are committed to inspiring healthier, more connected lives—where each individual has the opportunity to grow, express, and thrive. By bridging the worlds of art and public health, we envision Saint Louis where intentional, creative living is accessible to all.

---

About Justin King

Justin King is a St. Louis based painter and sculptor. With unusual mediums such as cardboard and papier mache, he creates animals and pop influenced sculptures. His papier mache animal busts fool your eye into believing they're cast bronze while his cardboard sculptures surprise you with their detail and form. His paintings range from colorful fluid abstracts to stylized portraits. He has recently been a featured artist at Magic House's Cardboard Construction: Beyond the Box Exhibit. View his work at www.justinkingdesigns.com

Examples of $1000 base sponsor

2019 Art Collaboration Sponsor: Companion Bakery

The possibilities are endless - large and small